SAN BERNARDINO SUPERIOR COURT ELECTS NEW PRESIDING AND ASSISTANT PRESIDING JUDGE

SAN BERNARDINO, CA—Judge R. Glenn Yabuno has been elected to serve as Presiding Judge of the San Bernardino Superior Court (SBSC) starting on January 1, 2022. Judge Yabuno currently serves as Assistant Presiding Judge. He will succeed the current Presiding Judge Michael A. Sachs, who finishes his term of office on December 31, 2021.

Starting on January 1, 2022, Judge Yabuno will lead the San Bernardino Superior Court in the oversight and management of court operations, 88 judicial officers, nearly 1,000 employees, and a court budget of $156 million. In this task, Judge Yabuno will work closely with the Judges' Executive Committee, and the Court Executive Officer.

Judge Yabuno has been active in various leadership roles within the court including Chair of the Budget Committee, where he has led many of the efforts to improve access to justice and help navigate SBSC through severe state funding reductions cause by the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Judge Yabuno served as Lead Deputy District Attorney for the San Bernardino County District Attorney's Office and was an Associate Attorney with Wilson, Borrer, Dunn, and Davis. Judge Yabuno received his Juris Doctor degree from Santa Clara University, School of Law and his undergraduate degree from California State University, Fresno.

SBSC Judges' have also elected Judge Lisa M. Rogan as Assistant Presiding Judge commencing on January 1, 2022. Judge Rogan was appointed to the San Bernardino Superior Court in 2013. She is currently the Supervising Judge of the Rancho Cucamonga District where she has led many efforts including 'outdoor court,' where courtroom proceedings were held outside for safety during the COVID-19 pandemic. Judge Rogan received her Juris Doctor degree from the University of La Verne, College of Law and her undergraduate degree from the Mount San Antonio College. Prior to her appointment, Judge Rogan served as a Supervising Deputy District Attorney and Deputy District Attorney for the San Bernardino County District Attorney's Office. Before law school, she served in law enforcement for the County of Los Angeles and the City of Pomona.
